

A Yardstick For Measuring Belle Glade's Police Force!

Mr. Hoover and his FBI have a system of reporting law violations throughout the country, not only those that come under his jurisdiction but all.

In his report for the year '64 — the report is generally issued mid-year — there are figures we may use for comparison with the records of Belle Glade's Police Department.

We have used reports of cities of 10 to 25,000 population.

In 1964 there were 113 cases of B&E (excluding 100ms); 35 were closed. Records of Mr. Hoover give an average of 23.7% "closed" against Belle Glade's 48.6%. The average closed cases of Assault is 52.8%; Belle Glade's is 69.3; 75 cases, with 32 closed.

In forgeries Belle Glade barely beat the average of 49.2%, with a record of 50%; 14 cases, with 7 closed.

In homicides, the average for manslaughter is 51.2% and murder 65.9%; Belle Glade has a record of 100% in both with 2 manslaughter and six murders.

Of the 17 robberies handled by Belle Glade nine were closed for a percentage of 53, while the reported cities averaged 39.4%.

In the 120 gambling cases 120 were closed for 100%. Mr. Hoover's report gives the average at 58.8%.

There were 13 beverage cases with 13 closed against an average of 69%.

The average number of employees of police departments of the country which Belle Glade falls is 1.7 per thousand population, with 3.5% of those civilian.

Belle Glade has 27 employees — 25 uniformed and civilian.

South Bay Commissioners Discuss City Water Works

South Bay City Commissioners heard Mr. Ray Bookman present the Quarterly Financial report Monday night. Mr. Bookman is a member of the auditing water to regular customers. Commissioner Woody O'Neil pointed out that the Parks and Street budget was very low this year, mostly due to the fact that he had "inherited" a $3,859.00 bill from last year, and that all he could do this year was to patch the worst streets and hope to stay within this year's budget.

Beautification

March 1 will be the start of the Red Cross Fund Campaign with Mr. Fred G. Yount, as the 1966 Chairman for Palm Beach County. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee of the Palm Beach County Red Cross.

Mr. Yount is president of the South Florida Fair and Exposition and has been a member of its Board of Directors for the past eight years. He holds a firm conviction that the Fair will continue to grow and prosper until it becomes the single outstanding event of the year in Palm Beach County since 1955 when he sold his extensive business interests in Pittsburgh to come to Florida.

The Chairman's interest in Palm Beach County dates back to the 1920's when he was employed by the Everglades Experiment Station at Belle Glade, Florida, as an assistant to Dr. R. V. Allison, who is now recognized as the "father" of agriculture in the Glades area.

HE AND HIS SHADOW

Retain State Control

For more than thirty years, the individual states and the federal government have worked amicably together to provide the best equitable method of operating of unemployment compensation systems.

Now the Congress is considering legislation H. R. 8282 which would greatly revamp our national unemployment compensation program. It would shift control of unemployment benefit policies from the state legislatures to the Congress.

The proposed legislation would: 1. Establish a permanent system of federal extended benefits. 2. More than double the wage base on which the unemployment payroll tax is levied and would also increase the tax rate. 3. Set the stage for the abandonment of experience rating. 4. Establish federal benefit standards that would disrupt states laws and dictate benefit levels. 5. Force all states (after a maximum of six weeks' postponement) to pay regular benefits to people who quit their jobs voluntarily, who are fined for misconduct or who refuse suitable jobs. 6. Provide federal grants to encourage greater state spending for benefit liberalization. These proposed changes would federalize the effectively operating state unemployment compensation systems.

The added burden on the industrial community would hinder its ability to provide the necessary economic growth and new job opportunities. In fact, rather than sustain jobs it could destroy them.

How can great minds be produced in a country where the test of great minds is agreeing in the opinion of small minds?—John Stuart Mill.

Uncle Dan From Doolie Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers at the country store Saturday night was giving the medicine perfession the one-over-light treatment. It got started when Ed Doolie announced he had been to see his doctor that afternoon. Ed claims the longer the Democrats stays in office the worse his roomnitis gets and the Great Society, he says, has about got him on crutches.

Ed told the fellers the doctor didn't do him no good but charged him $3 for the conversation anyhow. Most of the visit was took up, said Ed, with the doctor telling him about how the practice of medicine was a combination of science and art. Ed reported his roomnitis was hurting mighty bad to have to listen to that stuff but he was afeared to say anything on account of the doctor might up the price to $5.

He told Ed that fixing a sick body was a science, just like fixing a broke down car, but treating a sick person was a art. He said if a feller come to him with a pain and he couldn't find what was causing it, he don't up and tell the feller he ain't hurting. He told Ed that was where a doctor has got to use art instead of science.

Clem Webster allowed as how that was getting too close to spirit healing to suit him, but he admitted he didn't want no doctor telling him he wasn't sick when he knowed he was.

By Russell Kay

Well there is some good coming out of the transportation strike in New York, a lot of folks who have been needing exercise for years are getting it and there is more sure-enough fresh air in the city than most folks can remember.

They say the "pen is mightier than the sword" but we are finding out that the "Quill is mightier than the politicians, the public interest and the Supreme Court combined."

The situation isn't pleasant for a thinking man to contemplate for it indicates that a few willful labor leaders can do not only to our large cities but to the nation as a whole and this evil power has been handed to them on a silver platter by selfish politicians willing to sell their country down the river for labor votes.

We have been asking for it for a long time and I am afraid the situation will get much worse before it gets better.

Have you ever stopped to consider what would happen if the Longshoremen and Teamsters all decided to follow some leader like Quill and went on strike at the same time?

In a very short time a large percentage of our population would starve to death. It wouldn't take very long for all business and industry to come to a complete standstill.

Supermarket shelves in our great metropolitan centers would be empty in a week or so, millions of babies would be without milk, hospitals and clinics would be without medicines and supplies, filling stations would have no gasoline and money, whether you happened to have a lot or a little, wouldn't help a bit.

No one ever thought a city like New York would be all snarled up and helpless by the action of ONE union. No body ever thought the day would come when a fanatical labor leader would tell a Supreme Court Judge to "Drop Dead" on a national hook-up but it has happened and we can thank the Congress and political bosses of the nation who have brought it on through their coddling of labor over the years.

For a long time we have prided ourselves as being the greatest and most powerful nation on earth. We have felt secure in our position and the courage, common sense and patriotism that made this country great has been slipping. A large segment of our population no longer feels a stir of pride when the flag goes by or bothers to lift the hat.

We are too busy worrying about our personal pay envelope or bank balance to give much thought to the American boys who are fighting in Viet Nam or other trouble spots. We are apathetic when we read of student riots and burning of draft cards.

We can brag about our Peace Corps, our Medical Aid for the Aged, our Foreign Aid and Our Great Society but all of it can come tumbling down in a mighty short time if some powerful labor group decides it is time to get tough and calls a general strike. That will be the day that America goes down the drain and don't kid yourself that it can't happen here.

What Is Communism?

LENIN'S DEFINITION OF MARXISM

Lenin defined Marxism as, "the class war plus the dictatorship of the proletariat." The essentials of communism are therefore the concepts of a war between classes and a class dictatorship. In general terms we may attribute the doctrine of class warfare to Marx while the organization and establishment of dictatorship is the program of Lenin.

To understand the Marxist doctrine of CLASS WARFARE, we must first understand the Marxist doctrine of CLASS. To understand the Marxist doctrine of class, we must first understand the Marxist doctrine of MAN. To understand the Marxist doctrine of man, we must first understand the Marxist doctrine of MATERIALISM.

MATERIALISM

Marx starts from the premise of materialism. This materialism has been defined by his great disciple, Mao Tse-tung, as follows: "There is nothing in the universe except matter in motion." It follows that there is no God, there is no spiritual realm, man has no spirit and in the last analysis he has no mind.

MAN

Man is matter. He is matter in motion. He is a machine. The mysterious and unique qualities of man are due to the complexity of his machinery. The essential machinery is the brain. It is from the structure and motion of the particles in the brain that all human qualities derive. The brain forms its structure by the accumulation of experiences during its formative period.

CLASS

If a number of brains have similar experiences from a similar environment, they will form similar structures and this similarity of brain structure will manifest itself in similar: attitude, emotions, and ideas. People with similar attitudes, emotions, and ideas form a "class."

The experiences stored in the brain are provided by the external environment. The environment of man is a constant struggle to produce the necessities of life in a hostile world. Survival demands a constant battle to provide food, clothing, shelter, and transportation. It is this environment of struggles for production which Marx believes created man and his mind. Man is therefore the creation of economic forces. He is economically determined.

BOURGEOISIE

Marx then stated that the prevailing system of production "capitalism" provided two environments for the children as they were born. One environment was found among those people who owned the means of production. This environment provided one set of experiences resulting in similar brain structure and therefore similar attitudes, emotions, and ideas. Their economic and social environment formed them into a class. The name Marx gave to the class of ownership of the means of production was the Bourgeoisie.

THE PROLETARIAT

The second environment was that which surrounded those who labored and used the productive tools owned by the bourgeoisie. Their sole asset was their labor power which they sold for wages.

THOMPSONVILLE, CONN., PRESS: "If you're wondering what to send to your lad in Viet Nam, remember Airman Perko says razor blades, soap, shaving cream and underclothes are in short supply. It's great our men want razor blades. When a man wants to stay clean shaven, his morale must be pretty high. If you send underwear, don't send thermal stuff. It's hot in South Viet Nam."

HARMONY, MINN., NEWS: "I think LBJ drove a poor bargain with Castro. In other words he goofed. I don't know just how many refugees we are supposed to absorb but I think we should have insisted on reciprocity. If we were allowed to export to Cuba one home grown communist for every refugee coming over here it would have helped a lot."

GILBERTSVILLE, N. Y., BEE-JOURNAL-CHRONICLE: "... doctors today are so loaded with cases that they are forced to limit their response to calls. If anybody has an idea that the situation is bad today. Wait until medicare gets under way. . . . Every hypocrite in the country (eligible for assistance under the new medicare legislation) will be insisting that he's sick, must have attention and that the government says he is entitled to it, must get it and the government will pay for it."

PANSHALL, N. D. RECORD: "In the old days when someone was in need . . . no one would think of giving over and saying, 'Here I want to give you this,' instead they would say, 'I don't need this right now, bring it back when you get through' . . . If this same idea was used today in giving millions to other countries, I am sure the image of the 'Great America' would be uplifted greatly in our foreign country transactions. . . . The art of giving is the ability to help a man and not hurt his pride, not just giving to give because we have so much."

Belle Glade Pastor Trades Pastorate With N. C. Pastor

The Rev. Richard Y. Roseman and his wife are in Hickory, North Carolina, for a few days. Ordinarily, they would be here in Belle Glade, but because a Hickory, North Carolina pastor and his wife wanted to spend some days in Florida, the exchange of parishes resulted. For Pastor Roseman it means that he is able to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Roseman of Hickory. For the Hickory pastor, the Rev. Russell W. Harnack, it means that he and his wife have a brief change of pace from the cold weather of the piedmont Carolina state.

The pastoral work in both places goes on just the same. Upon arriving here, Pastor and Mrs. Harnack met with the weekly Bible class on Wednesday evening.

The passage will be included in the Christian Science lesson on "Love."

Several Bible stories will be read, among them the conversion of Cornelius and the parable of the Good Samaritan. A correlative reading from Science and Health includes these words: "The rich in spirit help the poor in one grand brotherhood, all having the same Principle, or Father; and blessed is the man who seeth his brother's need and supplieth it, seeking his own in another's good."

Peter's statement — "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him" — find a parallel in this line from Science with Health: "Love is impartial and universal in its adaptation and bestowals."

Nazarenes Review 1965

Gains in stewardship and membership and the construction of a general hospital in New Guinea were highlights recorded in 1965 by the Church of the Nazarene with world offices in Kansas City, Mo.

Per capita giving was a record $168 — an increase of $7.62 over the previous high mark in 1964. Giving for all purposes reached $59,600,000, an increase of $14,138,000 over the preceding year.

The church had a net gain of 6,554 members last year to bring the national membership to 355,824. Nazarenes in churches overseas increased to a total of 68,694 to bring the world membership to 424,518.

The annual statistical report by Dr. E. Edgar Johnson, general secretary, also showed that Nazarenes opened one new church in 1965. The 52 new churches organized brought the total number of churches to 4,487.

The stewardship gain apparently assures the Nazarene church of remaining in first place in the nation in per capita giving among all major denominations with 100,000 or more members.

In the "march to a million" Sunday school enrollment campaign launched in the fall of 1964, the church has reached a total of 899,000 persons. In the U. S., churches last year gained 46,381 in Sunday School enrollment to reach a national total of 776,892. Overseas Sunday schools added about 122,000 more persons.

Dr. Johnson termed the denominational gains "a sound and substantial." He pointed out that the church has more than doubled its membership in 20 years. It stood at about 210,000 in 1945.

The new Nazarene hospital to be opened early in 1966 near Banz, New Guinea will be the fourth operated by the church. The others are in India, Swaziland and the Republic of South Africa. The church of the Nazarene maintains about 600 missionaries in 46 countries.

Is Free Speech The Real Issue?

By Lewis Llewellyn

Did man come from monkeys — or apes — or ape-like creatures in the dim, dark ages of the past?

This is a question which has engaged the attention of many scientists and other men over a period of years. The latest battleground in this controversy is an Arkansas courtroom, where the Arkansas Education Association has launched an attack on a law in that state which forbids the teaching of the evolutionary theory in the schools which are supported by public funds.

CREATION PLUS EVOLUTION!

Mrs. Susan Epperson teacher, is the nominal plaintiff in the case. Mrs. Epperson says that she believes that "God created the world and all in it," but she also accepts the evolutionary theory of the origin of species.

The Bible says that God created the animals that inhabit the earth and that He said, "Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind — cattle, and creeping things, and beast of the earth after his kind. And it was so."

And it was so that each species of animal does reproduce "after his kind," but many also believe that new species have come into being by the process of evolution.

However, the evolutionary theory is not unanimously accepted, even among scientists and college professors. For example, Dr. C. Theodore Schwartz, who was for many years a professor at New York University, was listed in several "Who's Who" publications, and was a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, has declared, "There is not a jot of proof for evolution."

In the view of many, the similarities in physical structure, between lower animals and man, can be easily accounted for by recognizing that all were made by the same Designer.

FREEZE! OF SPEECH!

The Epperson case reportedly will be based on the "freedom of speech" provision in the First Amendment, the contention being that freedom of speech is denied the teacher who is not permitted to teach whatever he or she wishes to teach — the Arkansas schools.

At first glance, this might appear to be a valid claim. But, if the contention is carried to its logical conclusion, a teacher who believed that the two plus two equal twenty-two ought also to be permitted to teach his students the kind of mathematics which he held to be correct.

A teacher who believed that the sun moved around the earth should also be allowed to teach this to his students, on the same basis of freedom of speech.

Don't the people of Arkansas have some right to control what their children are to be taught?

Mrs. Epperson should be free to say what she wishes — and she is — outside of the classrooms. But inside the classroom, when she pays, she has — it seems to me — an obligation to keep her teaching within the bounds set by her employers.

Make STRONG COMMUNITIES

The world is filled with the sound of many drums. Drums of militarism stir man to war and conquest. Drums of conformity invite him to keep step with low standards and false values. Drums of greed lure him into the killing pace of selfish getting and gaining.

But a different drum sounds, too. It beats in the rhythm of law and love, and rings with the sound of eternal truths. It beckons man to integrity and true self-fulfillment; it calls him to the path of duty and to the way of service. The different drum is God's.

A man must choose which drum he will listen for and follow. Many years ago, Henry David Thoreau wrote: "If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer." It is God's house in one place where you will hear the "Different Drummer." Worship there this Sunday with your family.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization could survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Hunter's Problems
The principal causes of hunting accidents are accidental gun discharges in the hands of hunters, victims in the line of fire, hunters mistaken for game, and the ricocheting of bullets. Care and common sense can reduce the number of hunting accidents.

Intracoastal To Jupiter Having Maintenance Work

Maintenance dredging of the Intracoastal Waterway between the St. Johns River in Jacksonville and Jupiter Inlet in Palm Beach County will soon begin under a contract awarded by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers in Jacksonville.

The $162,071.87 contract, according to Jacksonville District Engineer Col. R. P. Tabb, calls for removal of all limiting shoals in the waterway, restoring it to 12-foot navigable depth from Jacksonville to Fort Pierce, and to 10-foot depth from Fort Pierce to Jupiter Inlet. This will necessitate removal of some 243,000 cubic yards of material, the District Engineer said.

Successful bidder on the work, Parkhill Goodloe Co., Inc., of Jacksonville, will be required to complete the dredging operation within 120 calendar days.

ITEM: Some food rich in vitamin C is needed every day because the body is unable to store this essential nutrient. Breakfast is a good time to get your daily requirements of vitamin C. This can be obtained by eating vitamin C foods such as tomatoes and tomato juice, strawberries, cantaloupes, orange or grapefruit juice.

ITEM: Real color miracles can be worked by merely changing the tone of walls and woodwork. The cost of painting materials is surprisingly low-frequently well under ten dollars per room. This is a small price to pay for a major transformation in your environment.

Kill this pellitory weed in sugar cane.
Use Atrazine. Here's how:

When you see pellitory weed starting to grow, apply Atrazine 80W herbicide, plus a little surfactant. You'll clean out infestations of this winter annual fast and effectively... without hurting cane.

Atrazine is safe to sugar cane. It will not injure your crop when you apply it as directed on the label. And since it's non-volatile, there's no danger of drift to adjacent, sensitive crops.

Even though Atrazine has proved to control pellitory at any stage of growth, early treatment assures best results. With pellitory under control early, you grow more sugar cane per acre.

That's because Atrazine prevents pellitory from interfering with sugar cane tillering. Also, Atrazine helps make soil moisture and nutrients available for your cane, and not for pellitory weed.

So plan now to grow the maximum tonnage of sugar cane from each acre you plant this season. Just use Atrazine to control pellitory weed this winter.

Xi Beta Gammas Potted Orchids And Guests Enjoy Paddle Queen

Saturday evening, January 22nd, eight Xi Beta Gamma members and their husbands and guests enjoyed a trip on the Paddle Queen out of West Palm Beach. Because of the rainy, chilly weather, the group reported that they almost had a private boat trip, as only six other people were aboard.

Guests of the members were: Mr. and Mrs. T. Eastling and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, West Palm Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Thurmond Knight, Riviera Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hilburn, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lanier, Belle Glade.

Many growers today are using one of the many new bark media for potting orchids. They simply potting because they're easier to handle than osunda.

If you use bark, pour a small amount into the pot. Then set the plant in place. Pour in more bark, packing it around the roots as you would with soil. The bark "should come up to the base of the rhizome" the same as with osunda.

McIlwaine says the pot can be "tapped" to help settle the bark.

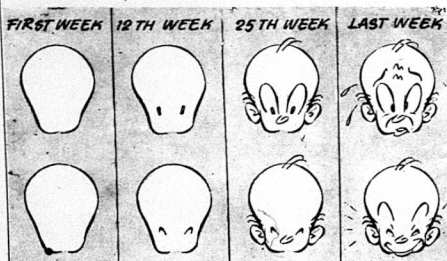

The orchid plants are then set in the pot and more osunda fiber is packed around them to hold them in place. Katherine Rawls is in Miami spending 10 days with her cousin, Louise Collins.

New Semester Begins

Notice

The first semester of school is rapidly coming to a close. According to teachers, grades could improve overall and the second semester is the time to get busy.

The second semester begins January 26. For many it is a redeeming period, and for some, it is another 90 days of imprisonment. For those going on to college, good grades are a must. As for seniors, it is the last of the good old days.

No matter how well some ones grades may be, everyone can improve upon study habits. Below are some helpful hints.

1. Plan all work. Make a reasonable schedule and stick to it.
2. Be in good health. Eat regularly and get plenty of sleep.
3. Have a definite place for study. Work in a neat and comfortable place.
4. Always begin to study as soon as seated at the study area. Avoid any kind of daydreaming.
5. Take notes regularly, but listen and write only what cannot be remembered.
6. Always begin studying for an examination as early as possible.
7. Get plenty of rest and take the test with a clear and relaxed mind.
8. Upon following these few helpful suggestions, one should find himself doing much better, gradewise.

For the purpose of informing those students who might not have heard the announcements Monday it was asked that the following be printed:

As of Monday the following violations of school policy will result in the automatic suspension from school. No probation will be given.

- (1) Truancy from school—this includes leaving the campus at any time without official permission.
- (2) Smoking or having tobacco products in your possession while under the jurisdiction of the school. This includes all school-sponsored activities.

Back In The Old Days...

The Idaho Education News has dragged up an old teacher's contract... a vintage of 1923. It stipulates that a teacher will be paid $73 a month... at the ice-cream parlors... smoke cigarettes... drink beer, wine, or whiskey... leave town without permission... ride in a carriage or automobile with any man except her father or brother... dress in bright colors... dye hair, use face powder, mascara, or lipstick... However there are certain things the Idaho teacher of 1923 had to do:

- Sweep the floor daily; scrub it weekly; start the fire at 7 a. m. on school days, and wear at least two petticoats.

Para-Med Week Coming Up

Plans and activities for Para-Medics week, February 11-18, were discussed and developed at the last meeting of Para-Medics members. The purpose of the Para-Med week, which is state-wide, is to arouse interest in both the club and the profession of medicine.

Several activities were discussed and committees chosen. Patricia Williams, chairman of the thought for the day is selecting worthwhile thoughts for each morning during the week.

Laura Livingston and her committee are planning displays for both trophy cases. In conjunction with the Art Club, Janice White's committee is planning a dance after the Belle Glade-Palm Beach game. As the week comes to a close, an assembly will be presented to the student body involving a parade by club members. Mary Kate Ponder is head of the Assembly group.

The program was moderated by Mrs. Carter, Director of Nurses at the local hospital, who on a surgical nursing report on the meeting she closed with a few words from Mr. Saunders, Hospital Director.

FTA Honored At Tea

Accompanied by their sponsors, Mrs. Stevenson & Mr. Whitehead, the Belle Glade FTA attended the annual tea given by the Theta and Alpha Omega Chapters of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society yesterday afternoon.

This organization is a professional teachers' fraternity which sponsors events to aid in bettering the educational field. Our school is very proud to have one of our teachers, Mr. Earwood, as an active member.

To honor all Future Teachers in Palm Beach County, the event was held at the Henry Morrison Flagler Museum, located in the heart of Palm Beach.

The program was centered around the teaching profession and the FTA's future in it.

Mix A Happy Year

Take 12 fine, full-grown monkeys, mix them together, and you have a happy year. That is the message of the 12 old memories of bitterness, rancor, hate and jealousy. Cleanse them completely from every clinging spirit, pick off all specks of pettiness.

Cut these months into 30 or 31 equal parts. Do not attempt to make up the whole batch at one time, but prepare one day at a time as follows:

Into each day put equal parts of faith, hope, love, work, hope, fidelity, liberality, kindness, rest, prayer, meditation, aid, grace, a teaspoon of good spirits, a dash of fun, pinch of folly, a sprinkle of play, and a heaping cupful of good humor.

Pour love into the whole and mix with a vim. Serve with quietness, unselfishness, and cheerfulness.

My mind reeled as I drove home from the party. I'd had a drink or two, or maybe more. As I drove on, I heard a thought of how my friend had begged me not to drink anything else. As I raved down the road, my thoughts bled out and my eyes suddenly became blind. I heard a scream of tires and then nothing. Much later I became vaguely aware of red lights flashing and men talking over me. I heard a policeman tell the ambulance driver that he thought I was dead. I tried to speak, but nothing was said. I tried to move but my body remained motionless. They picked me up and placed me in the back of Mighty Rams Defeat Brahmas!!

Rams Lead On To Victory

This year at Belle Glade High School, we have an outstanding basketball team and it is led by seniors Carey Jones, forward, Tony Latour-guard, Harry Chaney-center, Ivan Williams-guard, Richard Van Landingham-forward, and Scottie Markham-guard. Other players include Quen Wilson-guard, Bryant Davis-forward, Eddie McAllister-center, Ronnie Ratliff, Carlos Valtella-forward, and Sonny Campbell, guard.

Coach Luke has made many comments regarding his team. The team had won eight games and lost three. Two of those games have been lost by one or two points. The Rams have averaged 66 points per game while holding the opposing team to an average of 46 points. All of the games have been real team effort with Jones, Latour, Davis and Wilson, all having been high scorers in one or more games. Carey Jones is the top rebounder with 115 points in eleven games and Latour is second with 83. Even those boys who have not been high scorers have contributed heavily to the winning effort including Harry Chaney, Scottie Markham, Eddie McAllister, Ivan Willis, Ronnie Ratliff and Carlos Valtella. Sonny Campbell has not played recently due to a hand injury, but is now ready for action.

The seniors have been good leaders for the team which has juniors Davis, Valver and Campbell, and sophomores Wilson, McAllister and Ratliff, all of whom have gotten considerable experience this year and should form the nucleus for fine future teams.

We have eight games remaining plus tournament play and we feel that a continuing successful season is forthcoming if the team keeps up its good play and we have no injuries.

The high point of the season thus far was the game against Stuart, who had beaten Vero Beach, one of the top teams in the Eastern Conference and Boca Raton, one of the top teams of the Western Division. The injured Rams poured it in the last half after leading by only 31-29 at half-time to win 89-71. Belle Glade scored 21 points in the third quarter. In that game five players scored in double figures. They were Quen Wilson, 21 points, Carey Jones, 16 points, Tony Latour, 16 points, Bryant Davis, 13 points, and Harry Chaney, 12 points.

Scoring averages are as follows: Jones 17.1, Latour 14.7, Davis 11.3, Chaney 9.45, Chaney 4.30, McAllister 3.70, Markham 3.20, Ratliff 1.77, Valtella 1.60 and Willis 1.4.

Senior captain Tony Latour commented, "This is the best team Belle Glade has ever had. I also believe that if we go on this season like we have we will end up defeating the rest of the season."

Another co-captain Carey Jones stated, "We have one of the best coaches in the conference and the best boys in the conference too. All Harry Chaney and Scottie Markham other than the fact that we really feel like playing basketball."

As everyone can see the Basketball team possesses Ram-Spirit needed to win the game, but they also believe with the attendance and spirit of the kids they could do a better job. So come out and support the MIGHTY RAMS.

Last Friday night, January 21, the Rams rolled past Okeechobee with a 65-46 victory.

At the beginning of the first quarter the Brahmas had the lead but by the end of the second quarter the Rams were headed for their ninth victory.

The top scorer for the Rams was Carey Jones with 26 points, followed by Bryant Davis with 11 points.

The Junior Varsity's record now is 7-1 after beating the Brahmas. The season for both Varsity and Junior Varsity has really shown their ability and skills.

A class competition was also held at the Okeechobee game. The seniors won the privilege of attending the Cleveland game free of charge for having the largest attendance.

The Rams traveled to Marathon the 22 of January in hopes of another victory. On the 25 they challenge the Bobcats of Boca Raton. Then meeting here Friday night the 28th, the Rams will be attempting to raise their record as the play off with Pahokee's Blue Devils. Come and support the victorious Rams!!!

The Roving Eye has been sick and did not get around a lot this week. But it seems that all the Senior boys are just happy about the new and improved strolls in the lunch room. Did Ivan get a haircut? Something seems to be missing.

Everyone would have loved to have gone to Riley's party last Tuesday.

It seems that Mary Kate has lost her car. What happened Mary?

Has everyone noticed that Rebecca M. didn't wear wheels in her car?

Ed V., what did you say Rebecca M. did? I mean was Journalism class are you ever going to finish the annual or is everyone planning on dropping the class?

Bill Miller, what's the new interest these days?

Are there any students thinking of digging a hole and crawling in since semester tests?

Juniors, I hope you'll forgive the Rampage staff for that figure of $5117 last week. Your final total of $5117 is very more impressive.

It seems that some teachers are accusing some students of wrong doing, what about this Johnny M.?

Did everyone have fun at the fair?

The Roving Eye will be watching you during the weekend so be careful.

School Appraisal In Progress

A school official from F. A. U. is presently conducting an appraisal of our school's curriculum, teaching facilities and advancement.

Every ten years, a group of professors and teachers from both high schools, and colleges investigate each school in the state. They sit in on lectures, quiz the teachers, evaluate the curriculum. Our high school was last inspected in 1961, five years ago. The next complete inspection will take place in 1971.

This is the fifth year after the last complete appraisal. In between the 10 year span, a secondary inspection is carried out by one outside official. This is now in progress now.

The evaluating is carried on as follows:

Several committees are appointed each year to study and report on the subject which it represents. A chairman is then chosen for each committee. The official will give its report on a given day after school in one of the classrooms. A self-appraisal is thus conducted with a minimum of effort from everyone.

The committees and their chairmen are Philosophy & Objectives, Mr. Stevens; Guidance, Mr. Rogers; Student Activities, Mr. Hayes; Instruction, Mr. Carter; Administration, Mr. Rascio, and Statistical Summary of Evaluation, Mr. Saunders.

In addition, each teacher is on a subject area committee. The course will cover two trimesters of work. Some high school teachers are taking the course for graduate credit, but everyone is and must share the work load.

The Late Remorse

By Ronnie Gerry

I could do nothing but lay still.

The mortician called in his young assistant. The teenage boy walked slowly and timidly. He stopped before my sickening carcass and gulped, turning away his eyes so that the mortician said, "Shoot the juice into him and throw him in the icebox till tomorrow." The tired mortician left me with the now terrified boy. As of yet my eyes had not closed. The boy got the needle and prepared to draw the blood from my body. He tried to shut my eyes so that I could go on with his job. He could not, and becoming ill he dropped the needle into the folds of my shirt.

When the mortician returned the next morning he cursed the boy under his breath for his negligence. He had been contacted by my parents who, incidentally, were quite wealthy. He put me into a lavish casket and rolled me into the next room. All that day friends of mine came to pay their last respects. The mortician put a piece of black felt over my eyes so that they would not glare into the eyes of my visitors. By this time a faint sense of hunger and thirst began to creep over me.

The next morning the mortician loaded me into the country church where I had attended since early childhood. It was now that I began to think of my past and the horrible fate awaiting me shortly in the future. All of my early adulthood had been spent in drunkenness, trouble-causing, and spending my parent's money. Now as I recounted what the minister had said in his sermon, it seemed odd that the man who warned me against this day should help so much to hurry it coming.

After the touching service ended, I was taken to a nearby cemetery. At this time I suddenly became quite violent in my inward emotions. I began to pray and then stopped. I didn't know to whom to pray. My parents and friends came weeping by my casket which had not yet been fastened. I was now the center of almost partial insanity. As I was about to be lowered into the grave, the crowd broke away from the dispersing crowd and ran crying to the casket to pray. I was laid in and fell on my body. The needle, which the negligent boy dropped became lodged in the coffin and now pierced my arm. I suddenly felt the sharp pain of the needle in my arm and I screamed from the half-opened casket into the arms of my terrified girlfriend.

(I should have stayed in the car.)

Ford sales are booming! One reason—engineering magic like this:

New stereo tape player option with easy-loading cartridges. • New station wagon Magic Doorgate—swings out like a door for people and down like a tailgate for cargo. • New automatic speed control option. • A ride so quiet that owners of European luxury cars—from a handcrafted Jaguar to a $14,000 Mercedes—have said, after a demonstration ride in a Ford XL or LTD, that it was even quieter than their custom-built cars. • Quiet-test a '86 Ford for yourself.

Aspects Of Sugar Industry Told To Woman's Club

Mr. Alfred Wehre, Yale graduate and general superintendent of the Glades Sugar House, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Woman's Club, last Thursday at the Civic Center. Introduced by Mrs. J. R. Faulk, chairman of the International Affairs Committee, who was in charge of the program, Mr. Wehre's topic was on "Some International Aspects of the Sugar Industry."

Mr. Wehre opened his speech with some interesting facts about the "sugar business" on the local scene.

He stated that the heaviest machinery, except that used in steel rolling mills, is used in the sugar industry; requiring 8,000 HP to operate. He stated further that approximately ten thousand tons, or 500 trucks per day of cane are processed at The Glades House per day. The raw cane has to be weighed because this is the basis for payment to the grower. The juice from the cane is weighed and cleaned by adding lime and heating; 1,500 gallons of juice per minute has to be evaporated to 500 gallons per minute—which means 1,000 gallons of juice has to be evaporated per minute. The refuse becomes fuel. The sugar is taken out much the same as in the process of cooking "fudge." Temperatures of 160 to 120 degrees (cooling) is required to crystallize. Perforated baskets let the molasses escape and the sugar stays in. The sugar is then conveyed to the warehouse or shipped.

Speaking on the international aspects of the sugar industry, Mr. Wehre said that the old sugar cane grass originated in New Guinea and that records indicate Columbus found sugar cane in the New World. The speaker pointed out that one-half of the countries of the world comprise the sugar nations—some of them are Australia, New Zealand, Africa, India, Every country in South

DONALD H. REED, JR., State Representative Donald H. Reed, Jr., announced today that he will file as a Republican candidate for re-election to the Florida House of Representatives.

Rep. Reed, who is serving his second term as a member of the state house and is currently minority leader, now holds the Group 3 seat.

America, Chile, the U. S., etc. There are 8 or 10 markets which are protected by quotas. Every nation has a quota from Uncle Sam. The U. S. and possessions are one of the greatest producers, but still not sufficient for demand.

The speaker emphasized that the sugar industry is an intensely "International Affair" with a world-wide organization of 1,000 members. The organization meets every three years. The next meeting will be held in Taiwan. In the three-year interim members prepare research papers on ideas and interesting aspects of the sugar industry which are presented at the meetings.

Mr. Wehre stated that Florida is neck-and-neck with Louisiana on annual production, and that the percentage yield for the Glades Sugar House is 8% to 10% for Louisiana; 13% in Cuba and that Hawaii, with 10 tons per acre, is highest in sugar per acre. Mrs. S. N. Knight, Sr. presided at the meeting. Mrs. James Winchester presented the devotions.

Hostesses were: Mrs. Yates Floyd, Mrs. Charles Nickles, Mrs. W. H. Hooker, and Mrs. Paul Jensen.

It was announced the next meeting will be February 3rd, and will be a tour of the Flagler Museum. The Fine Arts Committee, Mrs. Murray Weeks, Chairman, will be in charge. The Club Telephone Committee will inform members of transportation and other details.

F. T. A. News

The Lake Shore Chapter of Future Teachers of America announces a busy schedule for the remainder of the school year.

A "Lost and Found" station sponsored by the F. T. A. was set up and is presently conducting a successful operation.

The F. T. A. "Cadet Training" program was initiated on the 17th of January 1966, with seven senior members participating in a well planned program at Lake Shore Elementary school.

Plans are now being worked out for installation ceremonies.

Visiting members of the Roosevelt High School will install officers.

Several community programs have been planned in order to explain our purpose in the community. Plans are also being worked out to make it possible to attend the banquet given in honor of the Future Teachers of America by the Delta and Alpha Omega Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Sorority. This Banquet will be held at the Henry Morrison Flagler Museum, Palm Beach, on January 26, 1966.

Forthcoming programs will include the following: A student Talent Show entitled "Explore Your Talent" and a dance. The date for these activities will be announced at a later date.

THE IDEAL HOUSE GUEST

The laws governing the behavior of the ideal guest are not easy to follow. As a guest you must conform to the habits of the family with which you are staying. You take your meals there, hour, eat what is put before you, get up and go to bed according to the schedule arranged by your hostess. The ideal guest not only tries to wear becoming clothes but tries to display an equally becoming attitude. No one is ever asked out very much if she has the habit of telling people all the misfortunes and ailments she has experienced or witnessed. Another attribute of the perfect guest is never to keep people waiting. She is always ready for anything. If no one seems to want to do anything, she always has a book she's absorbed in, or some other interest.

The ideal house guest never thinks of herself, but of the persons around her. She is good tempered and makes the most of everything that comes. She has a pleasant word, an amusing story, or an agreeable comment for most occasions. She has acquired the habit of turning everything that looks like a dark cloud, as quickly as possible, into a silver lining.

The ideal guest is an equally ideal hostess; the principle of both is the same. A happy outlook, consideration for others, forgiveness of self and tenderness are all qualities of the ideal person.

Football Players Receive Championship Jackets

On Monday, January 17, 1966 a special assembly was held for the Senior High School students for the purpose of issuing championship jackets to the team that were purchased by the student body and faculty members.

These jackets were given to these boys because they were champions of the Southeast Atlantic Conference for 1965.

The jackets are made of purple and gold material. The body of the jackets are purple and the sleeves are feathered gold with purple stripes at the wrist. On the face of the jackets are the letters L. S. (Lake Shore) and at the top of the jackets is a football denoting that they are champs.

The following football players received jackets: Johnny Bailey, Johnny Brown, Ira Lee Johnson, Daniel Parrish, Robert McClendon, Ronald Cooke, LeRoy Tucker, Thomas McGrady, Curtis McWhite, Alphonso Royal, Jimmie L. Webb, Charles Walker, Charles Haynes, Joe Sheeley, Henry Singleton, James Freeman, William Harper, Charles Daniels, Ernest Clark, Joseph Pringle. The Importance Of Reading

Are you as well informed as you would like to be? A recent study has been made concerning habits of our congressmen by the National Paper's Research. This information brings home the importance of knowing what's going on.

They studied the members of the House of Representatives, and the information showed that each man reads 4.2 books, 3.3 magazines and 29 newspapers each week, per month. There's an old saying that a man who reads more achieves more.

Several statesmen have made outstanding contributions in the literary field, for instance; Senator Barry

Goldwater wrote the "Conservative" which was a best seller in both forms, hard-bound and paper-back. A Pulitzer prize was awarded to John F. Kennedy's "Profiles in Courage" in 1957. It also was a best seller. There are many more. Consult your reading list.

These should act as an incentive to us. Each student should strive very hard to improve his reading comprehension by making full use of our library facilities and diligently following the instructions given by the teacher.

Plan to improve your reading habits and thus become better informed students.

The Concord Hymn

By the rude bridge that arched the flood,
Their flag to April's breeze unfurled,
Here once the embattled farmers stood,
And fired the shot heard round the world.

The foe long since in silence slept;
All like the conqueror silent sleep;
And time the ruined bridge has swept
Down the dark stream which seaward creeps

On this green bank, by this soft stream,
We set today a votive stone;
That memory may their deed redeem,
When, like our sires, our sons are gone.

Spirit, that made those heroes dare,
To die, and leave their children free,
Bid time and nature gently spare
This shaft we raise to them and thee.

Angel of Mercy
Rachel Baker
Dorothy Dix was truly an Angel of Mercy. This book that is so elegantly by Miss Baker gives an excellent account of her work in mental institutions. She built at least thirty great mental hospitals in America and several in Europe. When the hospitals were turned into institutions, this aroused her fury. She began to investigate them and found that in most cases they were nothing more than dungeons.

Miss Dix left the idea that it was really not enough to take sick people out of those places and place them in clean beds; she felt that the

Maggie's Column

Dear Maggie,
I have a problem in English. Although I try to do well in English, I just don't understand it. I know that you need English to get along in life, but as I said before, I just don't understand it. Please tell me what to do.

Want To Do Good

Dear Want To Do Good,
There are four things that I suggest you do, in order to get your English:
1. Be interested in your class.
2. Participate in class discussions.
3. Do outside work and read books on the subject.
4. Always asked questions.
All of these add up to two main things: work and determination. I also suggest that you consult your teacher. She or he will gladly help you.

Maggie

Dear Maggie,
I went to the dentist about three or four weeks ago and had my teeth fixed. Now that I'm back in school I don't talk when I'm called upon in class because I don't want anyone to see that I have my teeth fixed. Will you tell me what to do?

Scared

Dear Scared,
You should remember that you'd have to talk in class when called upon by your teachers. There is nothing wrong with having your teeth fixed. The trouble is, you feel that you will tease you and you might become embarrassed. You're going to have to make a choice between being teased, embarrassed and respectfully participating in the class discussion.

Civil Service Exam Scheduled For South Bay

A Civil Service Examination to fill the post of Police Chief, is scheduled to be held in three weeks. The former Chief, Andy Andrews resigned January 13th due to disagreement over the beginning pay of the rookie policeman.

Originally, the exam was to be held Thursday night, but City Clerk Herbert A. Craig, stated that the City Commission and the Civil Service Board decided to advertise in THE HERALD for three weeks beginning February 27th.

Applications may be filled out at the South Bay City Hall for the qualifying applicants, and time of the examination will be announced later.

The City Commission approved last Tuesday the hiring of Belle Glade desk and identification officer, William Zisser to replace Sgt. D. Ray Pugh, who resigned earlier this month.

James A. Mathis, a local resident and former Deputy Sheriff is temporarily filling the post of Police Chief, and indicates he will apply to take the Civil Service for the permanent post.

Math Classes Cancelled At South Bay

Due to the lack of interest on the part of local residents the new math classes have been cancelled, according to the instructor, George King. Classes were started January 10, and there were 21 meetings held, with only six people in attendance. The required number is from 15 to 20 people.

Mr. King also states that classes will be organized again either in August or September, or when someone informs him that there is the required number of people interested in taking the course.

Okeelanta Strike Ended

After several days of unrest, the 850 laborers have gone back to cutting sugarcane. There was a 3 day strike, and a riot was threatened, but never materialized.

Fifty-nine of the "displeased men," were returned to Jamaica and the problems have ended. After being without work for three days because of rain, the trouble started, and the talk of "more money" was heard. The strike was termed only an "excuse," by Don Jackson, assistant personnel director of the Okeelanta Sugar Mill.

There will be some loss of cane due to the strike, since after cane is burned and ready for cutting, deterioration can be expected if the harvesting is delayed.

The Intercollegiate Reading Band is comprised of selected students from the college bands of the south and were featured in a concert and reading session on Saturday.

AFFIRMATION: VIET NAM LITERATURE PREPARED FOR MAILING AT EMORY UNIVERSITY (L-R) Chairman Remar Sutton, Jr., Lynne Hyde of Agnes Scott and Wayne Wood of Emory.

Affirmation: Viet Nam Wayne Wood - A Leader

What's being Affirmed? "Not America's day-to-day policy in Viet Nam — but the country's commitment there," says Wayne Wood, from one of the sixteen rooms now being used by the organization of students in Wesley Hall at Emory, where Wayne is an English student.

Wayne joined Remar Sutton, Jr., a Business Administration student, and Lynne Hyde of Agnes Scott, and three of his own classmates in drafting a statement of purpose. Sutton the originator of the idea is Chairman of this volunteer association of college students, and says: "I became aware in my travels of how badly people over there interpreted things that happened over here."

The group felt that some action is necessary to let the world know that the folks back home — most of the folks anyhow — are behind the boys in Viet Nam. The woolly-haired and fuzzy brained beatniks whose mental gyrations land on the possibility of publicity thru "bring-the-boys-back-home" chants and draft card destruction leave a wrong impression on the foreign public and sometimes the political directors.

These serious-minded and patriotic youth also say "bring-the-boys-back-home" AFTER they've done their job; and while they're doing their job, THE AMERICAN PUBLIC IS BEHIND THEM!

It is reported that about 100 students forgot Christmas holidays to address more than 100,000 printed sheets and get them mailed.

In February Dean Rusk is scheduled to speak in the Atlanta Stadium to a state-wide assembly being set up by the organization.

Sutton's experience includes a trip on the University of the Seven Seas, traveling over the world, as well as Assistant to the mother is Mrs. Maud Richardson. Speaker of the Georgia Legislature. He hitch-hiked a round Europe and audited courses at a Swiss University.

The statement of purpose includes the following: "The opinion of the majority cannot be obscured by the voice of the minority. This minority has a right to be heard and indeed, should be heard. However, there rests with the majority the task of making known to the world that our nation's commitment is supported by her people and will be fulfilled. This task can no longer be ignored."

The group reports some $62,150 raised from benefits and voluntary donations and this will not suffice. They are not loudly asking for donations, but we are sure would appreciate whatever you might send in. Why not give Wayne a word of encouragement even if you can't send along a check? Wayne is a Glades boy, a graduate of our school and was a forceful editor of the Rampage.

Headstart Program Held To Summer Sessions

Assistant Superintendent Charlie T. Council has announced that federal funds anticipated for this year's Headstart program — a War-on-Poverty program for culturally deprived children not yet in the first grade — will continue as a summer program only.

There had been inquiries as to whether this program could be started during the second semester of the normal school year. Lack of funds, as well as difficulties which would arise adequately staffing the program with qualified personnel, and probable lack of suitable centers would be among obstacles to extending the program at this time. Centers were established last summer in many elementary schools. Elementary school

The commissioners learned that the financial picture was not too dark, although there was no 'fat' at all in the budget, with some taxes still to be collected. If revenue should exceed budget expectations, it should be held by the city to pay bond obligations.

Mr. Craig, City Administrator, reported that the engineers have not been able to come up with an accurate method of measuring the amount of water actually pumped by the city. The present method of estimating the amount of water treated on the rated capacity of the pumps which is not accurate, but using these figures the auditor commented that there was a loss of approximately 2 1/2 million gallons of water, or about 25% of the total amount pumped.

Part of this loss is to be expected due to the breakdown of a new system, installed by Mr. Bookman, and added that if the city could cut water losses to ten percent it would have a very good system.

The city adopted a contract with Russell and Axon, consulting engineers, for advance planning for storm water drains and street construction under Public Law 560, Housing and Home Finance Agency. The contract is in three parts, one, the engineers are to prepare a preliminary report, two, a comprehensive report and three, final plans and specifications and actual construction, but the city can stop at any point on 30 days notice to the engineers.

Mr. John Tennant, representing Russell and Axon, reviewed the whole contract with the City Commissioners, and pointed out

Headstart Program Held To Summer Sessions

Assistant Superintendent Charlie T. Council has announced that federal funds anticipated for this year's Headstart program — a War-on-Poverty program for culturally deprived children not yet in the first grade — will continue as a summer program only.

There had been inquiries as to whether this program could be started during the second semester of the normal school year. Lack of funds, as well as difficulties which would arise adequately staffing the program with qualified personnel, and probable lack of suitable centers would be among obstacles to extending the program at this time. Centers were established last summer in many elementary schools. Elementary school

The loan is interest free. Commissioner Eilers urged that the city broaden the agreement to include sanitary sewers, but found no seconds.

If South Bay builds any part of the storm water drains or any part of the streets included under the planning study, it would have to repay a proportionate part of the loan to the federal agency, Mr. Tennant stated.

In other action the Commissioners heard Mr. James Mathis, acting Chief of Police, recommend that Patrolman H. B. Pitt attend the Florida Law Enforcement Academy in Tallahassee from February 13 thru the 19th. The Police Commissioner, Mr. Marvin Davis was not present, but was up North attending his son's wedding. All other commissioners were present.

Mayor Cosby Crews agreed with Mr. Mathis recommendation as did the other commissioners. The city accepted a quit claim deed from North attending his son's wedding. All other commissioners were present.
